Hi William

I've looked at a photo I took of No. 12 (photo attached) and not looks like a brown brick, (but looks like it was rendered at some point and that probably made it look a different colour - difficult to say)

But with that in mind I'd probably choose an ibstock Britley Brown Waterstruck. Unless you have any other evidence of type and colour?

Do you want me to amend the drawing to show the type and colour on there?

Let me know
Thanks William
John

Hi John,

Could you please confirm the proposed bricks to be used in the reconstruction of the chimneys at 10/12 Dyffryn Close St Nicholas? This is to avoid it being conditioned.

Thanks,
